THE ASSASSIN PRADO'S CAREER.

First Chapters on Second Page. CONTINUED IN MONDAY MORNING'S "WORLD."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1889.

KILBY'S PERMIT GONE.

The Comptroller Says the Briber Is as Bad as the Bribed.

will It Be the Means of Muzzling the Other Stand-Holders ?

Barrels, Not Boodle, Flowing in Upon Mr. R. D. Brown.

Comptroller Myers has revoked the permit of C. P. Kilby, a stand-holder in the New West Washington Market.

This statement, simple as it may appear means that the investigation into the allotment of stands, in progress before the Commissioners of Accounts, is practically ended. After many days spent in the tedious examination of witnesses by Mr. Nicoll and the Commissioners, the charges that bribery had been resorted to to obtain stands, was substantiated in at least one instance. Charles P. Kilby yesterday swore that he had paid Lewis Schoonmaker, Assistant Clerk of Markets in the Comptroller's office, $500 to secure his stand permit, and his testimony was corroborated by his employee, Henry H.

Grimm.

The Comptroller, when informed of this fact promptly suspended Schoonmaker, and at the same time revoked Kilby's permit.

An EVENING WORLD reporter interviewed Comptroller Myers on the subject this morning.

"Yes," said he, "I have revoked Mr.
Kilby's permit. I consider him just as guilty as the man who accepted the bribe, if not more so.

"Mr. Schoonmaker, I am told, has been
"Mr. Schoonmaker, I am told, has been in this department sixteen years, and has al ways borne the highest reputation, and nov s a Satan with a bribe that tempts him to Certainly the tempter is not less guilty than the man who succumbs to the tempta-tion: nor should be go unpunished. I re-voked his permit at once."

"But, did you consider," asked the reporter, that you may have obstructed the re-porter, that you may have obstructed the investigation before the Commissioners of Accounts? Have you not, by revoking Kiby's permit, closed forever the mouths of other stand-holders who may have paid money to secure their permits and who may have desired to testify, but who will now keep their own counsel for tear of being kekel out of the market and having their pasmess ruined?"

This was a poser to the Comptroller, who this was a poser to the Comptroller, who answered:
"I had not looked at it in that light. I viewed it from a moral standpoint only. I could not see how a man who confessed to an act of bribery should be entitled to any consideration and had no thought of the effect of my action on other witnesses. Besides, I acted on the savice of the Corporation Counsel."

Assistant Corporation Counsel Wickes, who has been coresenting the city during the in-

Assistant Corporation Counsel Wickes, who has been operenting the city during the investigation entered the office at this point and corrobo, ated the statement of Comptroller Lyers, and added. "I do not think that the action of the Comptroller will have the effect suggested. I am informed that the investigation will not last longer than next Monday, anyway, and its improbable that the objectors have any is improbable that the objectors have any vitnesses who can testify to specific tets of bribery."

While the Comptroller expressed a desire to facilitate the investigation in progress, he said that he did not feel that he ought to offer immunity to bribe-givers by promising not to revoke their permits if they testify. He said

"I started in to organize this new market on a certain basis, and I propose to carry it out. Every case of violation of my rules brought out by this investigation will receive brought out by this investigation will receive my immediate attention.

"I have already revoked the permits of exAssemblymen Finn and John Tubbs, and will revoke those of Mr. Howe and every other sub-letter who has sub-let without the permission of this Department.

"The man Boyle, who resides in Hoboken and who obtained his permit by representing himself as a citizen of New York, has been summoned to show cause why his stand should not be taken from him.

"I stand ready at any time to give the Commissioners of Accounts a full and detailed statement of all my official acts relative to this market."

When informed of the action of the Comp-

When informed of the action of the Comptroller in revoking Mr. Kilby's permit, the Commissioners of Accounts were unanimous in declaring that there is no necessity for further investigation by them.

Commissioner Holahan said that it will now be impossible to severe testimony of Commissioner Holahan said that it will now be impossible to secure testimony of further acts of bribery with a threat of loss of business held over the head of every of business held over the head of every stand-holder.

"Will you bring the Kilby and Grimm evidence to the attention of the District Atoriney?" Commissioner Holanan was asked.

"There's the rub," he replied. "If we do that we close Mr. Schoonmaker's mouth and he will not be available as a witness before us. He will be an accused person and can avail himself of a refusal to answer."

"You will remember that Schoonmaker told Kilby that he did not get a cent of the $500 paid him; that it went to others.

"Who the beneficiaries were we desire to discover, and Schoonmaker alone can tell.

"The Comptroller's office has agreed to produce him on Monday, but we have subbuna-servers looking for him."

Regarding the suggestion that the investigation would conclude next Monday, Commissioner Holahan said that eighteen witnesses have been subpoened to appear on that day.

The life of Standholder Richard D. Brown

nesses have been subpensed to appear on that day.

The life of Standholder Richard D. Brown is said to be made miserable by his joking fellow-marketmen.

He is the witness of "boodler"-"barrels" fame and he is hailed every time he shows himself around the market with cries of "Boodler!" "Barrels!" and like pleasing epithets, while innumerable small boys have been employed to carry to his stand all sorts of casks and barrels and offer them for sale.

The Procession at the Arien Ball. The ball and carnival of the Arion Society will e opened next Thursday night by a fine military display of the various committees having the entertainment in charge, all of whom, to the number of 400, will be elegantly and expensively constumed in the prevailing style of a hundred years ago. The sale of telects has been very large, and nearly all the boxes are sold.

The Saturday Roll of Merit of the Schools will Prear in the last edition.

The Fastest Time on Record. is the direction of the nearest drug store, is not loo fast for any person to make who is troubled with constitution, dyspensia, liver complaint or see headache, and is, therefore, in need of Dr. Pikack's PLEASANT PELLETS. Gentle and effective; one a dose.

SHE WAS TOO POOR TO LIVE.

MRS. ANNIE WEBER'S SIMPLE REASON FOR SEEKING DEATH.

She Took Poison in a City Park, Driven to Despair at the Thought of Her Hungry Children-Five Little Ones Waiting for Bread in the Miserable Rooms of Rivington Street Tenement.

Mrs. Annie Weber, of 316 Rivington street, died this morning from the effects of a dose of arsenic which she took with the view of ending a life of poverty and suffering.

For days she had sought for work in orde to earn bread for her little ones, and at night she was compelled to tell them that her applications had been refused.

Finally, yesterday morning, about 9 'clock, she found herself seated on a beuch in Madison Square Park.

She saw about her all the evidences of wealth and comfort, gazed bitterly upon them as she thought of her little ones waiting at the hovel in Rivington street hungering

Truly, life had no charms for her. She was full of despair, and with the last few cents she purchased the deadly drug that ultimately caused her death.

saused her death.

A policeman came sauntering by, The woman had begun to writhe with pain and ery cut in her suffering. A curious, gaping crowd gathered around and looked at her.

The policeman summoned an ambulance. It came and the unfortunate woman was taken away to the New York Hospital. No one of the crowd had inquired who she was; no one seemed to care.

one of the crowd had inquired who she was;
no one seemed to care.

The incident was soon forgotten by most of those who had witnessed it.

At the hospital the woman gave her name and address, and when questioned as to the reason for her act she only replied:

"I was too poor to live any longer."

The doctors labored hard, but their efforts were fruitless, for she died at 5 o'clock this morning.

morning.
A visit to her late home by an Evening Word reporter brought him to two little rooms, almost destitute of furniture.
Five small children gazed with wide open

Five small children gazed with wide open eyes at the caller.
When the reporter asked where their mother was the eldest said simply:
"She's dead."
"Where's papa?"
"He's gone for the undertaker."
"Why did mamma die?"
"Papa won't tell us."

You are very poor, are you not?'

Yes, sir."

Mr. Weber cannot speak English, and it is probable that the neighbors will have to bury the unfortunate woman.

STONE JURY NO. 2 DISAGREES

AGAIN THE JOCKEY ESCAPES CONVICTION FOR MILLER'S MURDER.

After being locked up for twenty-four hours the jury in the case of Jockey Stone, indicted for murder in the first degree for killing a Coney Island bartender named Henry Miller, came into the Brooklyn Court of Sessions this morn-

They told the judge they had taken no less sixteen bollots, and had sat up all night and morning.

The foreman said they stood six to six for con-viction, and he had no hope of coming to a decision.

They were then discharged and the colored prisoner was taken back to Raymond Street Jail.

This is the second failure to conviot the jockey of the killing of Miller.

After a five-days' trial last November the jury had also to be discharged without a verdict.

A MURDERER EXTRADITED.

John Kuhu Brought Back from Queenstown for Killing a Man in Wisconsin. The steamer Britannic arrived from Liverpoo

When the vessel reached her pier, one of the first passengers to come down the gang-plank was John Kuhn, who was in company with a United States Deputy Marshal.

Kuhn was brought back from Queenstown on extradition papers. He is charged with the murder of a man in Wisconsin.

Coffins with a Cross Buried Apart. rigan, who recently asked the Commissioners of Charities to assist him in identifying Catholics mong the pauper dead in the hospitals, the Commissioners have made a new rule that the Commissioners have made a new rule that the coffins of all Catholics dying in the institutions be branded with a cross as a token of their religious profession.

It is made the duty of the heads of the various institutions to see that the rule is complied with. Archbishop Corrigan has blessed a portion of Potter's Field, in which consecrated ground Catholics may hereafter be buried.

Twenty Colored Gamblers Fined. At 11, 30 last night, Capt. Murphy, of the Pwentieth Precinct, with a squad of Twenteen Treeme, with a word of Man, raided the unlicensed saloon of Winfield Bridgeford, at 492 Seventh avenue, kept as a gambling-house for colored men. The proprietor and twenty colored gamblers were arrested.
Bridgeford was held in $500 bail for trial. The gamblers were fined $4 and $5 each.

Broker Edward Hatch Fails. The suspension of Edward Hatch was announced on the Stock Exchange this morning. He had been a member since July, 1883.

Clifton Entries for Monday. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I CLIFTON RACE TRACK, N. J., Feb. 16 -Here s the programme and probable starters for the lifton races Monday, Feb. 18:

Clifton races Monday, Feb. 18:

First Race-Purse $250; six and one-half furlougs; selling allowances. Belmont, 112; Boodle, 109; Fred Davis, 109; Howerson, 104; Clatter, 104; Fountain, 104; Chancellor, 104; Avery, 104; Lorins, 104; Sellins, 100; Annie, 100; Afrod, 100; Henry George, 100; b.

Second Race-Purse $250; seven-sighths of a mile-Friar, 122; Courtier, 119; Margo, 117; 164 West, 117; Saluda, 117; Carrie G. 117; Bolins, 117; Speedwell, 114; Crackaman, 107; b.

Third Race-Purse $250; seven-sighths allowances, Vigilance, 123; Little iellow II., 119; Falatas, 112; Pilot, 105; Obtorne, 105; Havana, 105; Wheat, 106; Tax-Gatherer, 105; Ban Rope, 105; Bay Radge, 105; Pegama, 105; B. Tax-Gatherer, 105; Ban Mope, 105; Bay Ridge, 105; Pegraua, 105; B.
Fourth Race-Purse $500; handicap; one mile.—
Crackaman, 115; Ernest, 115; Orid. I14; Van, 108; Mattle Leoram, 105; Hermitage, 104; b.
Fifth Race-Purse $250; five-eighths of a mile; maid-ens.—Jesse Rank, 121; Free Lance, 121; Sylla, 121; Romance, 119; Kingsford, 117; Nerina, 112; Metta, 112; Jack Harkaway, 105; Ready Moucy, 100; No More, 101; b.

In the Field of Luber.

The Furniture-Workers' Section will not meet next Friday because it is Washington's Birth-day. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a mass meeting at Cooper Union Hall next Friday evening under the auspices of the Amer-ican Federation of Labor to agitate the enforce-ment of the eight-hour rule, beginning May 1, 1890.

It is expected that the finale of the beer boy-cott bribery matter will be reached in the Cen-tral Labor Union to-morrow. The Building Trades Section has especially instructed all of its delegates to be present.

CAUGHT IN THE RAID

Harlem's Gilded Youth Marched Off to the Lock-Up.

Police Interfere with a Little Mill at the Crib Club.

Discharged in the Harlem Court.

Police Justice Murray was surprised to find about fifty well-dressed men arrayed before him when he ascended the judicial bench in the Harlem Police Court this morning.

"What have these men done?" he asked. " My men raided the Crib Club, at 17 West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street, where a prize-fight was in progress last night, and these gentlemen were found there and taken into custody, as well as the pugilists," explained Capt. Westervelt, of the East One Hundred and Twenty-street station. The Crib Club numbers among its members nearly all the blooded scions of wealth and fashion in Harlem. Ten days ago tickets at $5 apiece began to circulate quietly about town, entitling the holder to witness a prize-fight for a purse at the club-rooms last night between "Tommy'

Russell, the Yorkville rusher, and Tommy Kelly, known in sporting circles as the Harem Spider.

The ring was pitched on the top floor of the club-room, and at 9.30 o'clock hast night frank Banham, a director of the Club, jumped into the ring, declared himself referee, and warned the spectators not to in-referee, and warned the spectators not to interfere with the sport.

There were about eighty men present, among the most prominent being J. L. Mott, ir., son of Jordan L. Mott, owner of the Mott Iron Works, over Harlem Bridge; Gus Groth, the billiard-ball manufacturer; Alexander Clark, Will Reiman, Bookmaker Ridge Levine, Ed Kearnev, ir., son of the auctioneer; Billy Rose, of the Astor House; Charley Arnstrong and Johnny Heraty.

Time was called at 9.35, and the little fellows went to work with a will. They were stripped to the waist, wore tights, and sparred with four-ounce boxing gloves.

They hammered each other very well, and sparred with four-onuce boxing gloves.

They hammered each other very well, and soon the ropes, floor, their bodies and faces were stained with bleod.

It was difficult to restrain the enthusiasm of the witnesses, and their shouts and shrieks of encouragement could be plainly heard in the street.

of encouragement to the street.

The eighth round had opened auspiciously, and Kelly had the best of the mill, when a ring came at the front-door bell.

Banham rushed to the head of the stairs shouting:

"Let no one in." but he was too late. An alert servant had opened the door to find Ward Detectives Mott and Price with a platoon of police behind them on the steps. They pushed their way in and rushed up-

Hairs.
Banham rushed back into the room where the mill was in progress yelling:
"Police! police! Skip, jump, get out!"
but there was no way of getting out.
The police entered with pistols drawn, it The police entered with pistols drawn, it is alleged, and ordered every one to surrender. Banham, Mott, Heraty, Armstrong and about a dozen others who seemed to have a pull walked out unmolested, but forty-nine others, including five reporters, were marched two by two to the station-house, with a big crowd behind them. The raid was made about 10.30. At the police station they were locked up, four and five in a cell, and kept there while waiting responses to urgent messages sent for bail.

responses to urgent messages sent for bail. Frank Hardy. Tom Mullins, of the Mount Morris Hotel, and Oakey Kerker, the Harlem saloon-keeper, came and bailed every one but the principals out, in the sum of $500 cach.

Justice Welde went to the station-house and took the bail.
The last man was not bailed until 3 o'clock this morning. The men arrested were very indignant because Banham and the others were not arrested.
Russell and Kelly had a lawyer this morn-

Russell and Kelly had a lawyer this morning, who had any number of witnesses to swear that it was not a prize-fight, simply a sparring exhibition that took place in the club-rooms last night.

The police had no direct evidence to disprove this, so Kelly, Russell and the other prisoners were discharged.

A DINNER TO MR. MORTON.

John F. Plummer to Be Host, with Many Distinguished Men for Guests.

Cards of invitation are out for a dinner to be riven on Monday evening, Feb. 25, by John F. lummer, the dry-goods king, at his residence, 24 East Fifty-sixth street. It is to honor Levi P. Morton, Vice-President lect, prior to his departure for Washington. Covers are to be laid for about forty guests, and Covers are to be laid for about forty guests, and the cuisine will be under the care of Delmonico's best chefs.

Among the guests will be Gen. W. T. Sherman and his brother. Senator John Sherman, of Ohio; John Wanamaker, Matt S. Quay and George W. Childs, of Philadelphia; Congressman Farwell, of Chicago; Senator Hawley, of Connecticut; Congressman William Walter Phelps, of New Jersey; Warner Miller. Cornelius N. Bliss, Chauncey M. Depew. T. B. Clarke, Treasurer of the Dry-Goods District Republican Club. Elihu Root. Al Plummer, Whitelaw Reid, Rev. John R. Paxton, D. D.; Logan S. Murray, George Bliss, the banker partner of Mr. Morton; George F. Baker. President of the First National Bank and Treasurer of the Union League Club; Congressman S. V. White, of Brooklyn; John R. Rockefeller and Henry M. Flagler, of the Standard Oil Company; William L. Strong, Joel B. Erhardt and Arthur T. Sullivan, of Sullivan, Vail & Co.

New Faces at the Hotels. C. C. Gilman, of Chicago, and F. S. Norwell, of Boston, arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning.

Edward J. Ovington, ir., of Chicago: H. K. White, of Providence, and C. S. Pearson, of Boston, are at the Hotel Bartholdi. F. H. Prince, of Boston; H. J. Mulford, Buffalo, and N. W. Taylor, of Cleveland, a registered at the Albemarie. Prominent at the Hoffman House are F. Howe, ir. of Boston; Emil F. Colt, of Rhode Island; A. Bloch, of Wheeling, W.Va., and S. B. Stinson, of Philadelphia.

At the St. James Hotel are R. S. Stockton, of Trenton, N. J.; J. B. Doris, the circus man-ager; William F. Johnston, of Philadelphia, and W. B. Pettet, of Utica. George M. Bond, of Hartford; George Watson, of Baltimore, and W. C. Wyman of Chicago, are among recent arrivals at the Hotel Brunswick.

C. P. Turner, of Syracuse, and B. F. Biiss, of Newport, arrived at the Sturtevant this morning. The Gilsey House register bears the names of J. S. L'Amoreaux, of liallston; W. Hackett, of Utioa, and N. S. Pennington, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Among the Grand Hotel guests are Col. F. Maus, U. S. A.; D. K. Tripp, of Chicago, and Samuel Acker, of Philadelph a.

THE LAST DAY OF THE RACE.

IT FINDS STANLEY THE ALMOST CERTAIN WINNER AT THE GARDEN.

The interest in the Madison Square Garden bicycle race has grown daily and the gatherings of spectators have increased in number ing will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, instead of 3, so that the race can be con Forty-Nine Prisoners Arraigned and cluded at midnight and without any infringement of the Sunday laws.

Lottie Stanley, the Pittsburg midget, still maintains her place at the head of the procession, all the efforts of Elsa Von Blumen to overtake her proving futile. She is clear to overtake her proving futile. She is clear grit and pluck, and her speed is remarkable. She has been favored by Dame Fortune and has had no serious accident or ailment during the work. She scored her 500th mile at she was going to beat the Garden's record—that made by George Littlewood in December lest in a go-an-you-please. It was 623½ miles in 142 hours.

Miss Oakes, in the blue and white of Columbia College, and Miss Von Blumen, who displayed streamers of the College colors, were the recibiouts of much attention from a delegation of the students last night.

delegation of the students last night.

Miss Oakes almost snatched third place from the Swallow, being only one and a half miles behind her at 1 a. m. She will make miles behind her at 1 a. M. She will make that up readily to-day.

The stalwart Armaindo was cheered on in a mad effort to retain her fallen fortunes by the strains of the "Marseillaise" by the band last evening and turned off 24% miles in 100 minutes, only Stanley, of all the other racers, being able reach within two miles of that figure. The result of the spurting was to leave Stanley 27 miles in advance of Elsa Von Blumen.

Von Blumen.

All but Armaindo and Brown will probably cover the 400 miles requisite to entitle them to a share in the division of the gate money. Sickness has deprived those two of The score at 1 o'clock this morning was as follows:

follows:
Stanley, 518.3; Von Blumen, 491.4; Swallow, 441.6; Oakes, 440.1; Lewis, 425.7;
Baldwin, 419; Hart, 359.6; Woods, 318.3;
McShane, 313.2; Armaindo, 221.7; Brown,

THINKS HE'S WATCHING MONEY.

The Strange Conduct and Murderons Attempt of Husband Meyers.

" My husband," said Mrs. Catherine Meyers tidy-looking housewife, to Justice Patteron, at the Jefferson Market, this morning 'tried to cut my throat with a carving-knife last night.

"The poor fellow acts very strangely. He keeps walking about his room in the house, muttering all sorts of things to himself, and when I remonstrate with him he gets angry and tells me to mind my own business—that he is in the Treasury and is watching the money there.

"I thought I could soothe my poor husband by speaking to him, but my interference seems to have enraged him."

Meyers was committed to the care of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction for examination.

A Million Expected to See the Play. The attendance at the Academy during the twenty-six weeks of the engagement of Denman Thompson in "The Old Homestead" ending last night has been over five hundred and eighty thousand. This is a record concededly the greatest ever attained by any attraction in this country.

Every one who visits the Academy speaks in praise of Denman Thompson, and it is expected the half million people already recorded will be the means of swelling the number to a million before Mr. Thompson's first season ends. This is a practical illustration of the adage that 'Nothing succeeds like success," and Mr. Thompson's most intimate friends are not alone in wishing him a continuance of his prosperity.

CHIPS

Horrors! There were only nine Senators at prayers in the United States Senate Chambe yesterday.

Some of the papers appear to have doubts about Warner Miller changing woodpulp for gardening.

Mr. Michael Murphy, Hoboken's defaulting Water Register, has opened a palatial gin-mill in Buenos Ayres.

The Druggists' Bulletin makes the interesting statement that whale's milk is used as a cure for consumption, and its correspondent says he saw whale milked for this purpose.

The other day Parliament issued a "blue book " on the Sackville-West affair, and not to be outdone the German Reichstag now comes out with a " white book " for the Samoa matter. The colony of United States defaulters at Win nipeg has been increased by C. S. Leach, recently treasurer of Maysville, Ky. There are nineteen there altogether. New tragedies are continually calling attention to the Hamilton-Burr duelling ground near Wee hawken. A young man shot himself there yes terday. There have been six suicides on this Pretty Cora De Hadley, of Brooklyn, has been arrested for marrying Gilbert M. Atwood, of the same city. She knew that he had another wife, but Gilbert told her that he was divorced. The Court holds that she should have consulted with the first wife before the marriage.

historic spot in about as many years.

George William Thomas Brudenell Bruce Marquis of Ailesbury, is suing for an absolute divorce from his wife, the once notorious Dolly Tester, of the Alhambra corps de ballet. The noble Marquis is well known in the London police courts, where he has frequently been arraigned for drunkenness and lisorderly conduct.

News Summary.

All the sophomores of Lafayette College, Pa. are suspended for hazing. Masked men enter the cottage of Jacob Faw-cett, at Mount Olive, N. C., and kill three women and a child with axes.

Pive women passengers of a street-car are badly hurt by being run into by a train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, at Chester, Pa.

Advices from Aden state that M. Aschmoff's expedition has hotsted the Russian flag at Sagallo, which is alleged to be French territory. Rev. W. N. Cleveland, a brother of the President, is rejected for pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Bouthampton, L. I., by a vote of 83 to 39.

to 39.

The ballot for United States Senator in the West Virginia Legislature result in even votes for Kenna and Goff, with the one vote to a choice to another candidate.

WEISS'S GOOD NAME.

Indignation That the S. P. C. C. Society Should Assail It.

The Loss of His Child Thought to Be a Heavy Enough Blow.

Tina Soon Again.

Were the Amendment to the Children's Bill a Law Such Outrages Could Not Be.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT. THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT, 1Drown by a well-known Supreme Court Judge, 1
7. All proceedings under this section (Sec. 201, Chap-676, Lowe of 1881, and Chop. 46, Lowe of 1884), when a commitment shall have been made, shall be subject to review by any court of record, upon extioner in the facts and the law, and in such a proceeding the commitment order or judgment may be affirmed or reversed or nodified in such manner and to such extent as may see Landlord Danziger, of the tenement-house n Broome street where the Weiss family live, was more indignant than ever this morning after reading in yesterday's Evening World the statement made about him by Supt. Jinkens, of Mr. Gerry's Society.

"I remember very well the officer of the Society who came to see me to make inquiries about the Weiss family," he said to THE EVENING WORLD reporter to-day," "and he tried his best to get me to say something against the people.

'I told him that I did not like to have two families living together in one set of rooms, but I let the Weisses stay there because Mr. Weiss wanted to get rooms in the same build ing, and there was not a vacancy just then. "When Weiss had a chance to get them he paid me for a week in advance before he occupied them. I never wanted to turn them my best tenants now. Their rooms are always paid for in advance, and they are the neatest and tidiest in the building. "I went into the room when they were staying with the Gensburgs after I had talked with the Society's agent and I saw the man lying on the sofa, who was reported as out, and as I said yesterday I regard them as or do any of the people with whom he was living. They could not stay here if they did. "I don't understand why the Society is trying so hard to make them out disreputable and give them a bad character, unless it is to being drunk, and I know that the accusation

"Mr. Weiss does not drink to my knowledge manufacture an excuse for the outrage it has "You will do me a favor to make this pub lic, for I have been asked by dozens of people about the matter, and I want to nail the statements of Supt. Jinkens and his officer. whoever he may be, as lies,"

Mr. Danziger further stated that every day he had callers to see the Weiss family and inquire about their affairs. Among them were many ladies and gentlemen who came in English, these visitors have to depend upon himself and his wife to interpret for her.

As the mother is much broken in health, the interviews bring on nervous fits of crying, for the good people can do nothing for her, although many offers of money and as offered to send his lawyer to fight the case, and every one who has visited the rooms has expressed amazement at the high-handed two case, and every one who has visited the rooms has expressed amazement at the high-handed two caseding of Mr. Gerry's Society and express proceeding of Mr. Gerry's Society and express sympathy for the mother and father in their distress.

Mr. Weiss told the reporter this morning

Mr. Weiss told the reporter this morning that he had yet heard nothing from the Society, and was still relying upon the promise made to him by Mr. Tuska and Mr. Allen, of the United Hebrew Charities Society, that they would let him see his child again.

"I am a strong man, and able to work for my family and support them comfortably. I have always been able to do so. But I have always been able to do so. But I have always the strong transit of this countries was fromble eyer since it came to this countries.

have always been able to do so. But I have had frouble ever since I came to this country, and being unable to speak the language and not knowing the customs here I may not have made the people up at the Society understand my case perfectly.

"They arely cannot say that I never made inquiries for my child till six months after it had been committed, for I have any number of witnesses to show that I went to the Society's office as soon as I got back to the city from Long island, and found that Tina was gone.

gone.
"They told me at first that there was no such child there, and then afterwards they maid she had been sent away.

"They made so many promises that were broken that I did not know what to believe. I did everything they told me, and then shey put me out and told me not to show myself there again. Now I have to sit still and see other peo ple doing for me what I ought to do myself That makes me feel almost as bad as to los Tims.

"They say all sorts of bad things against me and my wife, and I cannot contradict them. Sometimes I almost wish I was dead I have so much frouble.

I have so much trouble.

'I have a father sixty years old and a mother fifty-five living in the old country. They are fairly well to do and so are my wife's parents. I cannot write to them and tell them about Tina, and I do not feel like tell them about Tina, and writing to them at all.

"Yet I am getting letters from them all the time asking me why I do not write and tell them how I am getting along, and intell them how I am getting along them. quiring if anything is wrong. The last letter I wrote was six weeks ago. They know nothing of my troubles."

While the conversation with the reporter was going on in German Mrs. Weiss was listening intently and acquiesced in all her hust and said.

tening intently and acquiesced in all her hust and said.

She is hoping that the promises of the gentlemen who called to see her will be made good, and believes that she will see her daughter again next week.

Little six-yesr-old Sarah, who was having her Saturday holiday, was playing contentedly in the corner of the room with her blocks. She certainly did not look as though she had ever been ill-used, but was as plump and rosy.

ever been ill-used, but was as plump and rosy as any well-cared-for child of her age should as any well-cared-for child.

She remembers her sister well, and often saks for her. Ther tell her now that she will see her again soon, and she is happy in the prospect of having a playmate.

VERDICT SHORT OF MURDER.

MYATT'S JURY SAY CAVANAUGH'S KILLING WAS ONLY MANSLAUGHTER.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. 1 TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 16. - The Austin Myatt murder trial, which has been going on at Mercer Court for the past five days, ended this morning in a verdict of manslaughter against the prisoner.

The jury were out all night, having retired at 3.30 yesterday afternoon after a charge by Chief Justice Beasley which was regarded as The jury were out all night, having retired Mrs. Welss Living in the Hope of Seeing favorable to the prisoner. They came into court at 6,30 A. M.

The possession by James E. Cavanaugh of Myatt's knife at the time of the fatal shooting was commented upon as affording a possible ground for the theory of self-defense. Myatt had claimed that Cavanaugh approached him bad claimed that Cavanaugh approached him with knife upraised, but Cavanaugh's dying statement and the evidence of several of the State's witnesses are in flat contradiction.

Myatt will be sentenced next week. His wife is poor, and has three small children.

The verdict of manslaughter is considered the most satisfactory that could be given; for, while many regard the shooting as having been cold-blooded murder, there are many others who believe the evidence was not clear enough to justify the extreme penalty.

There was a quarrel on board the Pinefore

STARTLING DISCLOSURES PROMISED.

The Freeman's Journal" to Discour Anything Given in the Parnell Inquiry. [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] DUBLIN, Feb. 16. - The Freeman's Journal. after reviewing the course of the investigation before the Parnell Commission, says that even the testimony of the last two weeks and the introduction of the Parnell letters is tame compared with what is to come. It predicts revelations of a sensational character which will take the court and the country by surprise.

A state of things will be disclosed surpass ing fictions of the imagination. The Freeman's Journal does not enter into particulars, holding its information in reserve so that the case of the defense may not be prejudiced by premature publication. It points out that there will be a thrilling end to the career of a spy, informer, detective and purchaser of false testimony which is destined to become historic for England and Ireland.

WHAT'S TO BECOME OF THE STAKES? Meyer to Claim Them if McAuliffe Won't Fight at Once-But He Is Out of Weight.

esting question now what is to become of the Meyer-McAuliffe stakes. The former's backers claim to be eager for another fight, and the latter express themselves as being only too willing. But the meeting has not been arranged, and it is considered extremely doubtful among the sports here that it ever will be.

IMPRCIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

It is rumored that a private fight has been arranged, but this is not credited.

Meyer refuses absolutely to divide the pot and has entered his protest inside of the seventy-two hour limit, as provided in the articles of arrangement. articles of agreement.

His backer, Kennedy, he claims, has issued a challenge to McAuliffe for another fight also within this time limit. If the latter refuses to accept Meyer will claim the stakes, McAuliffe is said to be ten pounds over weight now and cannot possibly get in trim stakeholder, Harry Ballard, is called on for a decision, but is at a loss to render it.

SAW HIS WIFE IN THE BALLET. Mr. Wilson Makes a Lively Scene at the Casino Stage Door. Florence Wilson, one of the girls who wear tights in "Nadjy" at the Casino, has made special arrangements for escort to and from the stage this evening in consequen of trouble which happened last night.

Just after the ballet had appeared in the second act a young man left an orchestra seat and tried to get past the doorkeeper who guards the passage to the stage. He was much excited, and shouted that he had just seen his wife on the stage in tights. He was Mr. Wilson, and the Superintendent of a hat factory in Yonkers. His wife had got stage struck and run away from him. He raved that the company must discharge his wife. He would take her back at all hazards.

Mrs. Wilson, who says she intends to sue for a divorce, escaped by a rear door after the performance. BURNED TO A CRISP.

The Terrible Death of Little Mamie Hartel at Elizabethport. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD !

ELIZABETH, N. J., Feb 16.-Mamie Hartel, aged eight years, was burned to death this morning at Elizabethport. Some children built a bonfire in the bushes near her residence, at the glass-houses, and the girl with others were playing around it.

Her clothing caught fire and in an instant Her clothing caught fire and in an instant she was enveloped in flames.

Her playmates fied in terror from the spot, leaving the unfortunate child to her fate.

When some older people reached the scene, shortly after, the girl was found writhing on the ground in the agonies of death.

The lower part of her body was burned almost to a crisp and she died after being removed to her home.

STRYCHNINE AND MOLASSES.

Tragic Suicide of a Young Girl Who Had Been Deserted by Her Lover.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 16 .- A fourteen-year old girl named Laura Bourgoine, whose father is postmaster at Mahone Bay, mixed a large dose of strychnine with molasses veslarge dose of strychnine with molasses yesterday and swallo xed it.

She was found shortly afterwards in the agony of death, with the photograph of a young man clutched to her brest.

The young man had forsaken her some time ago, and despite her entreaties would have nothing to do with her.

She would soon have become a mother.

Bacing at Guttenburg To-Day. There will be racing at Guttenburg to-day.

PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

And William Coffee May Be Responsible for It.

There was a quarrel on board the Pinafore at 3. 30 o'clock this morning, and in the wrestling match that followed two men fell overboard. One is supposed to have been drowned, and the man who was rescued is under arrest on suspicion of having caused the death of the other.

The Pinafore in this instance is not a mano'-warsman in Her Majesty's service, but only an ordinary freight barge of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad transfer service, lying off the Company's yards, at the foot of West Thirty-first street. Owen Malone was her captain, and after her arrival yesterday he began to fill up with liquor. William Coffee was employed on

About 3 o'clock this morning Night Watchman August Weisman overheard the men quarrelling aboard the boat. They both seemed to be intoxicated, and during the altercation high words were spoken.

A half an hour afterwards We sman was in board as a roustabout.

tercation high words were spoken.

A half an hour afterwards We sman was in another part of the yard, when he heard an outery and he hastened to the shore.

He found a man struggling in the water, just off the shore, and after considerable difficulty he pulled him to dry land. The man proved to be Coffee.

Weisman and a man named Michael McCormack who had assisted in saving Coffee, made a diligent search for Capt. Malone, but they could find no trace of him.

The two men then went to the West Thirty-seventh street police station and reported the case. Officer Morris was detailed to arrest Coffee on suspicion of having caused his captain's death, by pushing him off the barge.

When Coffee was brought in he was still slightly under the influence of hquor. He said he lived in Paterson, N. J.

After spending the rest of the night in a cell he was brought before Justice Duffy in the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning.

the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning.

The prisoner said that both he and the captain had been drinking, and admitted having had a few unpleasant words.

When asked whether he had pushed Malone off the deck, he said that he and the captain had clinched and had a little wrestling bout.

"During the trouble," said he, "we made a misster and both of us fell overhoard."

a misstep and both of us fell overboard."

He denied that there had been any bad feel ng between himself and the missing man. oner until to-morrow morning, and ordered oner until to-morrow morning, and ordered the policeman to bring the night watchman to Court to testify.

The police express a doubt as to whether Malone was pushed off by Coffee or whether the drowning was accidental; but they will work on the case to-day, and if there is any evidence going to show that Coffee is responsible for his captain's death he will be held.

Up to a late hour this morning Malone's body had not been recovered. He is described as being short and of thick-set build. He had dark hair, a reddish mustache and a ruddy countenance.

ruddy countenance. A DRUNKEN INCENDIARY KILLED.

He Tried to Fire an Italian's Cabin and Was Riddled With Shot. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

WILKESBARDE, Pa., Feb. 16.—The body of John Gray, a young man residing in the suburb of Pitiston, known as Cork Lane, was found in a field near the Delaware and Hudson station at an early hour this morning. He had been murdered. Two loads of birdshot had been fired into his body, evidently at close quarters, and the left side of the body was perfectly riddled with shot.

Investigation showed that an attempt had been made to burn the shanty of an Italian named Agoste, and the supposition is that Gray and Tigue, coming there drunk, made as attack on the place and tried to set it on fire. fire.

The Italian came out with his shotgun and fired at them. Tigue was found this morning under a water tank not far off. He was still under the influence of drink and stated that he remembered nothing of what had happened the night before. The local police are now in pursuit of Agoste.

THAT PECULIAR DISEASE.

More Boys Afflicted in Another Institution. REPRCIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. WOMELSDORF, Feb. 16 .- A good deal of ex-

ing out among a number of boys of a disease somewhat similar to that which has afflicted the inmates of the soldiers' orphans' school at McAllisterville.

They apparently have the same symptoms. They see all sorts of imaginary things at it are subject to the strangest hallucinations. In connection therewith they have occasional violent spells of nausea. Their symptoms puzzle the physicians.

citement has been created here by the break-

Fire in Washburn & Moen Mills. PRINCIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
WORCESTEE, Mass., Feb. 16.—The Washburn A Moen Wire Mills were damaged to the extent of $35,000 by fire last night. The origin of the fire is unknown. The entire fire depart-ment worked three hours before the fire was got under control. Dr. McGlynn's Sanday Talk

At the Anti-Poverty Society's meeting at Cooper Union to-morrow evening, Dr. McGlynn will speak on "Balfour and O'Brien: the

IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]